SINGING THE GOSPEL.

MR. MOODY HAS EFFICIENT HELPERS.

MR. AND MRS. STEBBINS RETURN FROM INDIA IN TIME TO HELP AT THE BIBLE

CONFERENCE. Fast Northfield, Mass., Aug. 9 (Special).—In The Tribune last Monday was a sketch of fira D. Sankey. many years the close friend and constant companion of Mr. Moody. Another singing evangelist, a warm personal friend of Mr. Sankey's, on whom Mr. Moody leans heavily, is George C. Stebbins, who with his wife is helping to make the present Bible Conference a memorable one to the hundreds of Curistian workers gathered here. Mr. and Mr. Stebbins have not sung so frequently this year as they did last, as there have been a number of singers in attendance. including Mr. Sankey, Mr. and Mrs. Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. Towner, Miss Fox, Miss St. John, Mrs. Turner and

GEORGE C. STEBBINS.

One of the most interesting meetings held last week was the one led by Mrs. Stebbins on Friday She told of the journey of 5,000 and more which she and her husband took in India last winter, after leaving Dr. Pentecost at Calcutta. They went to help him in his evangelistic mission. but after the holidays his plans were changed, and they accompanied Bishop Woburn on a tour through Empire. They visited missionaries and sang at many services during their tour. Few travellers in India have had such excellent opportunities for seeing the inner working of missions, especially the work among the native women. Benares, Lucknow, Cawn-pur, Dellu, Agra, Moradabad, Aliahabad, Jubbelpur, Poona, Bombay, Bangalore and Madras were among visited. On their way home the travellers visited Palestine, Egypt, Italy, Germany and England. reaching New-York only a few days before the opening I the Conference. While at Northfield they are the guests of George D. Mackay. From an editorial in Calcutta paper a few paragraphs are taken:

"Mr. and Mrs. George C. Stebbins, the noted songevangelists, together with their son, Mr. Waring Stebangless, together on Thursday evening for a tour ns, left Calcutte on Thursday evening for a tour court India before sailing for America. Their work through India before sailing for America. in Calcutta in connection with the mission of Dr. Pentecost, and in aid of such of the pastors of the city as availed themselves of their presence among us, has been greatly owned of God. Added to the indescribable charm of their richly cultivated and marvellously expressive voices, there is the presence and operation of strong spiritual influences. Their voices o consecrated practically and actually. They sing only that they may glorify God. The singers are forgotten in the pathos and power of the song. Mr. Stebbins is a master of the organ, as well as a singer of greaty beauty and power. His accompaniments are dways in the best of taste, and add wonderfully to the effect of the singing. Mrs. Stebbins has a rich alto voice, and as one listens to them singing together cannot wonder at their power to hold the largest audiences that have ever waited on the ministry of Mr. Moody, whether in England, Scotland, or America. India has probably never before had the privilege of listening to such Gospel singing as Mr. and Mrs. Stebbins have been furnishing in our city for the last month, nor is it likely that they will have such a rivilege again for wears to come.

Mr. and Mrs. Stebbins leave Calcuita because as Dr. Pentecost has decided to work chiefly among the educated natives during the remainder of his stay there seems no need for their remaining here longer. The Indian people do not appreciate Western music, and both Dr. Pentecost and Mr. Stebbins feel that their time and labors can be more profitably given to work among European Christians in various cities during the remainder of the one cold season for which they came out. Mr. Siebbins is a composer of world-wide renown. Many of the choicest hymns in songs and colos are from his gifted pen, as may be seen by look-through the book. He is still in the prime of life, and if spared, will probably do his best creative work in the future. The Indian mission field is honored by the visit of these gifted and consecrated servants of our common Lord. Their work has been blessed. Their work will be more widely blessed as they sing Redemption's story in other cities, as they have op-portunity. We thank God upon every remembrance of them, both for their personal friendship and for the blessings received under their ministry."

This, the closing day of the Bible Conference, has been full of interesting services. Although the time for the morning meeting to begin at the church was 10:45, the crowds began to come at 9 o'clock and the building was packed long before the apand the building was packed long before the appointed hour. At 10 o'clock the preliminary praise service began under the leadership of Mr. Sankey. After the children's choir had sung twice, they were dismissed by Mr. Moody, to make room for the others. The children reassembled at the hotel, where they were addressed by Mr. Mackay, of New York. The regular services were opened by the Rev. John Smith, of Edmbarch, who offered prayer and read the seventeenth chapter of John. The sermons were by Dr. A. J. Gordon, of Boston, and the Rev. J. h. Meyer, of London. Dr. Gordon began by saying that it was a singular fact that the three great scenes of Christ's redemption were wrought in gardens—in the gardens of His temptation, of His burial, and of His glory. The speaker in closing dwelt upon the words "make haste my Eeloved" and expressed his belief that the second coming of Christ was near at hand.

Mr. Sankey sang a song, and Mr. Moody followed with a prayer. After an intermission of ten minutes with a prayer. After an intermission of ten minuted Peter, and said unto Jesus, 'Lord it is good for us to be here.' He said his hearers had been on a Mount of Transiguration while at Northfield, and that many were both to leave it. But it is God's will to have us go down into the world; for it is only by such trials as a precounter in contact with the world that God can beach us the lessons of His love. The world itself wants us to come down. There are some which one can take with him, and which will be of service to men. "The first is the vision of the presence of Jesus in us; another is the attitude that we have taken, and which ought to have been taken hy every one at the time of his conversion; and, lastly, the vision of the second Advent that broke upon all the fact that it was only by faithful, obedient sorvice that one could preserve the inspiration which had been gained during the meetings. At 6:45 Dr. Gordon administered the rite of baptism to several hears one in the fact that it was only by faithful, obedient sorvi

ASBURY PARK CHURCHES FILLED.

Ashury Park, N. J., Aug. 9 (Special).—The Ashury Park churches were filled with crowds of worshippers. The Rev. D. W. Mulford, of Syracuse, was the morning preacher at the Reformed church. After the sermon the Lord's Supper was administered. The Rev. Dr. Scudder, the pastor, preached the evening sermon. The Rev. Dr. Maynard, of Hamilton Theological Seminary, preached at the Eaptist church on the "Inaufficiency of Human Knowledge, Contrasted with the Permanent and Eternal Resilities." The Rev. John Hamdley, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, discoursed on "What Think Ye of Christ? or the Great Revolutionist." His evening theme was "Going A-fishing, or Fish and Fishermen." Dr. Davenport assisted in the choir service. The Rev. E. Reed, of Lancaster, Penn., preached at the English Lutheran service in the evening. The First Presbyterian Church Asbury Park, N. There was an interesting service at the Asbury Park Beach Auditorium to-day. The Rev. S. Edward Young, beach Auditorium to-day. The Rev. S. Edward Young, which holds its summer services there, has arrunged a seeries of National services for every Sunday afternoon. To-day the topic was the United States Life-Saving Service.

The speakers were Governor Leon Abbett, Chauncey Shaffer, of New-York, and the Rev. S. E. Young. When Governor Abbett rose to speak he was gressed with a burst 55 appliance and a thousand waving handserchiefs. Gov. our Abbett spoke of the heroic service rendered by the men who are engaged in the Life-Saving Service along our coast. He was glad that political influence had not attempted to interfere with the Life-Saving Service, and soid that the Government

ONLY DRESS REFORMERS COMFORTABLE AT CHAUTAUQUA.

THE REV. DR. MACARTHUR'S SERMON-MEETING IN THE INTEREST OF THE AMERICAN

SABBATH UNION.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] Chautauqua, Aug. 9.—The mercury in the thermometer tried hard to get out of the top of the tube here to-day, and almost succeeded. It was by far the hottest day Chautauqua has had this year. The only comfortable people were the dress reformers, who, with only four pieces of apparel, their sole The new stock in dress, managed to keep cool. The new movement, by the way, has attracted the widest at-tention, and several of the leading magazines have sent representatives here to examine into it. Mrs. Frank Stuart Parker, the leader, leaves here early tomorrow morning for Canadian soil, and she hopes to bring about reciprocity in dress, if not in trade. It is more than likely that the Chautauqua management will erect a new amphitheatre or extend the old one by next year, in order to accommodate the multitudes that come here. Over $75,000 in new buildings was expended last year, and the indications are that the coming year will witness still greater activity in building operations. This was the programme for to-day: At 9 a. m.,

Bible study, "Selected Psalms," by Professor S. Burnham, of Hamilton, in the Amphitheatre; 11 a. m., sermon by Dr. R. S. MacArthur, of the Baptist Church, New-York, in the Amphitheatre; 2:30 p. m., primary class in Kellogg Hall, Sunday-school in the Temple, Assembly in the Amphitheatre, and young people's Bible class in the Hall of Philosophy; 4 p. Society of Christian Ethics in the Temple, an address on "Christian Education among the Colored Race," by the Rev. William Hayes, of Georgia, in the Amphitheatre; 5 p. m., C. L. S. C. vesper service in the Hall of Philosophy; 7:30 p. m., meeting in the in-terest of the American Sabbath Union, and addresses by Dr. J. H. Knowles and Dr. Taylor, of New-York. The Union is the only National association in this country for the preservation of the American Sunday as a day of rest and worship. It has the hearty co-operation of ecclesiastical assemblies, ministers and members of Presbyterian, Baptist, Methodist, Reformed, Lutheran, Congregational, Episcopal, Moravian and other churches, and its auxiliaries, agencies and publications are multiplying over the entire Republic. The New-York office alone has received for transitission to the World's Columbian Commission over 500 petitions and memorials, representing the convictions and requests of millions of Christian people against opening the World's Fair on Sundays, and every day adds to their numbers. Its literature, embracing reports, addresses, permanent documents, leaflets, and its weekly "Pearl of Days," covers nearly every phase of the sunday question of the times. The Union aims to lead public opinion regarding the civil and religious observance of Sunday and the violations of the Sunday laws of the land. It looks after National and local legislation for the protection of the public peace and order, and for the rights of all classes of the people to their weekly rest-day.

The sermon to-day was preached by the Rev. Dr. MacArthur, before a large audience, from the text John iii, 2; "Beloved, now are we the sons of God." The great choir under Dr. H. R. Palmer rendered some fine anthems. Dr. MacArthur said in part:

great choir under Dr. H. R. Palmer rendered some fine anthems. Dr. MacArthur said in part:

The glory of Christ is that He can be everything to everybody everywhere. We are made partakers of His great love, the heights and depths of which none can measure. We are the elite of Heaven, joint heirs of Jesus Christ. The Lord Himself spoke of His people as the sait of the earth, the light of the word. The noblest men and purest women are members of Christ's Church. The text suggests, too, that we are the sons and daughters of the Lord Almighty, and not of men or of angels. This means a great deal. Our preservation is continued creation. The same hand that formed us touched open our eyelids this beautiful morning. The mail who is born twice dies but once. I refer to the spiritual life and death. A child of God is something more than an adopted child. He is a partaker of the Divine naturo. True humility takes the place that God assigns: false humility declines it. In the story of the producal child, when the produgal was forgiven he did not ask to 58 made a servant, but a son. We walk too often in the valley, chanting our feremiads, when we should be on the hilltops singing our "Te Deums." Like Lord Chesterfield, in his answer to Louis KiVth, Live ought never refuse to obey the request of a king. God had one Son without sin, but no Son without temptation. Much as the Christian has in possession, he has more in prospect. The believer has limitations. "It doth not appear what we shall be." We are surrounded by mysteries. Divine sovereignty and human freedom are like two parallel lines that join in an arch beyond the clouds. If we cannot understand ourselves, how can we understand God's purposes, revelations and truits. We could not endure the sight of what we shall be when enveloped in the eternal weight of glory. If some men would preach what they don't know, they would preach forever. Tell your doubts to God, your truths to men. No man should allow the 6'd roof to be taken of this religious house, unless there is a be laken off his religious house, unless there is a better one ready to be put on.

At the meeting to-night Dr. J. H. Knowles, general secretary of the American Sabbath Union, said:

There is urgent necessity for increased vigilance and activity on the part of those who prize the Lord's Day. Multitudes crowding our shores from the Old World are entering upon the responsibilities of American citizenship without a proper appreciation of those national characteristics that have contributed so much to our prosperity. Trained in foreign habits, many of these individuals prefer the Continental Sunday to the American Sabbath. Their influence tends to change the character of the day.

MEETINGS AT OCEAN GROVE. THE TWENTY-SECOND ANNIVERSARY-AMONG

THE VISITORS

Ocean Grove, N. J., Aug. 9 (Special) .- The Rev George L. Barker, who is the successful conductor of the young people's meetings for this year, was born in Brooklyn, Kings County, N. Y. He was converted in 1876 at the old "Helping Hand Mission," in Brooklyn, and baptized in the Eaptist Church, the Rev. Samuel Reed, pastor. He spent two years in evangelistic work, and then became general scoretary of the Young Men's Christian Association. He was engaged in evangelistic work in Camden and Bordentown and various towns in New-Jersey for about two years. He was received into the membership of the Methodist Episcopal Church by the Rev. William P. Corbett, D. D. The Rev. Charles H. Yatman had had charge of these young people's meetings for a period of eight years and had decided not to come to Ocean Grove for work this season. After much correspondence with Dr. Stokes, and much prayer and solicitude on his part. Mr. Barker accepted the leadership of the young prople's meeting.

The first Young People's Temple was built in 1879.

and had a scating capacity of 300. The numbers in attendance at these meetings increased so rapidly that a new building was absolutely necessary. In 1887 the present building was erected, having a seating capacity of 1,500, with standing room for 500 people. It is a common thing to have a congregation of 2,000.

Friday evening, July 31, was the twenty-second an-niversary of the first religious service ever held at Ocean Grove. A memorial vase has been placed in Thomson Park to mark the place where the tent of the Rev. Joseph H. Thornley and his wife was located. Thomson Park is situated on a bluff near the Heck-st. bridge, in front of the Sheldon House. Twenty-two are still living. At the anniversary on Friday evening the Silver Lake Quartet led the singing. Dr. Alday read the twenty-fifth chapter of Isaiah, and the Rev. Daniel B. Harris, of St. Paul's Church, offered prayer A number of addresses were made. Bishop John J. Kean, of the Catholic University at Washington, preached the dedication sermon. The dedication ceremony was imposing, and fully 1,000 of the summer guests at the hotels and cottages attended the services. The church cost about $60,000. Of this, $20,000 had been subscribed before the completion of the structure. A large part of the remainder was raised to day. The cornerstone was laid in 1885. Among those who contributed to the church fund were A. J. Drexel, George W. Childs, F. A. Drexel, Mrs. Thomas T. Eckert, Mrs. Henry C. Falmestock, Daniel Dougherty, the late Charles R. W. Woerishoffe and Mr. and Mrs. D. Morgan Hildreth, Jr. A. J. Drexel, in addition to giving a substantial cash donation, presented a costly altar of marble and Mexican onyx, as a memorial to his brother. Several hand-some memorial windows were given, the largest one above the altar being the gift of the widow of Daniel Lyddy, of New-York.

POWDERED PUMICE STONE IN THE MILK.

Ponghkeepsie, Aug. 9 (Special).—On Friday night st, the wife of Fritz Heidman, of No. 119 Main-et., this city, placed her milk-pail in the front hall of the house to be filled by the milkman to the morning. Two other pails belonging to people in the house were also placed there. Yesterday morning Mrs. Heldman took her pail with the milk in it upstairs to use at breakfast. Mr. Heidman had gone out. Mrs. Heidman, with her two children, one eight and the other three years old, and another little girl, a visitor from Rhine eck, all sat down to breakfast together and partook freely of the milk. After breakfast the youngest child was taken ill and vomited violently, and Mrs. Heidman also began to feel sick. Dr. Marili was summoned and asked what the child had been eating and said he thought the tilness not serious. At supper Mr. Heidman drank two cups of the milk and soon after he too, was attacked with vomiting and a burning sensa-tion in the throat. Then Mrs. Heidman thought the milk had a singular appearance and Mr. Heidman ex-amined the pail, finding the bottom of it covered with a powdered substance. Last night the members of the family were still suffering and this morning the contents the pail were taken to a drug-store and analyzed. The powder was ascerained to be pulverized pumice-stone. The matter has been placed in the hands of the police, and it is expected an arrest will be made. The sick people are all improving.

A CRISIS FOR THE GIANTS.

WHAT CAN THEY DO AGAINST CHICAGO?

THE LEADERS IN THE BASEBALL BACE TO PLAY HERE THIS WEEK-SUNDAY GAMES.

The race for the National League pennant is as close and exciting as ever and the teams are so evenly. matched that it is as difficult to pick the winner to day as it was two months ago. Still the games this week may throw some light upon the question, as the Chicago leaders will play three games in this city and three more in Brooklyn.

Anson's Windy City Men hang on to the lead with the tenacity of bulldogs, but it is doubtful if they will be in first place at the end of the present week. The Giants are prepared to give the Chicagos a warm recepfion to-day, to-morrow and Wednesday, and the Bridegrooms will make it lively for them during the remainder of the week. The Chicagos have lost four out of their six games played in the East, and a like record this week will deprive them of the lead. The Giants recognize that now is the time to strike and that a victory from Chicago counts for a great deal. In the series so far played between the two teams, the Giants have won eight out of ten games. In fact, the New-York team has found its easiest work when playing against the leaders and tail-enders. It is to the teams between that the Giants have lost thirty out of their thirtyfour defeats. Anson, however, never tolerates a laggard, and the Giants will not win a game from their Western rivals without working hard for it. The New-Yorkers have heretofore been able to but any of Chicago's pitchers. Rusic has about as easy a time against the Chicago batsmen as he has against other teams, and the officers of the club can well afford to offer the young Hercules a special inducement to pitch in all three games. He can do it, and has an excellent chance to win them all. Barr, the Giants' new pitcher, has made a great record in a minor league, having won thirty-five out of the forty-one games he has pitched this season. If ne can do half as well in the League, he will prove a valuable acquisition to the local team. He will report for work to-morrow, and may pitch in one of the Chicago games, but certainly in one of the Cincinnati games later in the week. Barr is a giant physically. The League record to date is as follows:

Glubs.	Chicago	New-York	Boston	Philadelphia	Brooklyn	Cleveland	Pittsburg	Cincinnati	Games Won	Sames played
Chicago New-York Boston Phitadelphia Brooklyn Cleveland Pittsburg Cincinnati	857-52103	2 865569	9 4 6 4 6 1	5 7 7 8	6 7 9 7 5 6 4	12 8 4 5 9	779769	11 87 66 97	53 47 40 44 42 42 35 30	80 81 86 87 86 90 87
Games lost!	36	34	37	43	11	48	52	54

The Western teams will finish up their Eastern tour on Saturday. So far the Eastern teams have won a large majority of the games; in fact, all Eastern teams have won more games than they have lost. For the West, Chicago leads, yet has won but twenty-three and lost twenty-five games. The Giants, with thirty-one victories and fifteen defeats, have the best record. The Eastern clubs as a whole have won 107 games to eighty-three for the Western nines. The sectional record is as annexed:

East vs. West.	12210	Cleverand	Pittsburg	Games won	West vs. East.	New-York	Boston	Brooklyn	Philadelphia	Games won
New-York Boston Philadelphia	5 5 7	8  8 4  7 0  6 5  6	7 9 67	31 25 26 25	Chicago Cleveland Cincinnati Pittsburg	5 2 6	9 6 7	6 5 4 6	6 8 4	23 22 21 17
Games lost.	2512	26 27	220		Games lost.	15	23	21	24

The American Association shows eight teams well strung out, with Boston in the lead, and Louisville, last year's champions, hopelessly last. The St. Louis and Baltimore teams are the only ones likely to give the leaders any trouble. The Athletics play a wonder fully strong game at times, but the Philadelphians are too erratic ever to win the pennant. All the team are now in the West, and are playing to good crowds in spite of the long distance separating the teams. The record to date is as annexed:

The loss of Barr may affect the Buffalo leaders, but Manager Powers is confident that his Bisons will win the pennant of the Eastern Association anyway. Syracuse, Albany and New-Haven teams are making a good fight for second place, while the Rochester, Troy, Providence and Lebanon teams can only hope to get minor positions. The Buffalos ought to win, for they have lost thirteen less games than their nearest opponent. Here is the record to date: EASTERN ASSOCIATION.

THE SOCIALISTS JUBILANT. THEIR FACTION FIGHTS ENDED.

SENDING A LETTER TO THE BRUSSEL'S CONVEY TION-A PROCLAMATION TO NEW-YORK WORKINGMEN-LABOR NOTES.

The Socialist element in this city has stopped quarelling, and yesteriay it "did itself proud" by issuing proclamation and indorsing a letter to the delegates of the International Workingmen's Congress, to be held in Brussels next week. The letter, which will be read at the Congress, was written by Ernest Bohm, secretary of the Joint Central Labor Federation of this city, Brooklyn, Yonkers, Hudson County and Paterson, and is in part as follows:

is in part as follows:

Representing the progressive labor movement of America, these central bodies unite in congratulating your congress. On our banner is written, "The economic as well as the political emancipation of the masses."

as the political emancipation of the masses.

While, owing to the cosmopolitan complexion of expective people here we find it no easy matter to propagate our ideas and principles, we are determined to struggle on for the day of universal freedom. The eyes of the world are upon your work; in every workshop, mine and factory the proletariat awaits with beating heart the result of the great international congress. In this country, as elsewhere, capital has subjugated the wage slaves. Then follows a long tirade against capital, Pinker ton detectives, militia, police and the regu'ar army. Continuing, the letter says:

Let your Congress issue the edict, let its deliberations bail the advent of another day on which the emancipation of the masses from the present iniquitous social system shall be heralded.

A week ago a faction fight threatened to break out in the ranks of the Socialists, but yesterday at their meeting, at No. 385 Bowery, all the Socialist delegates to the Central Labor Federation joined harmoniously in issuing this letter and a proclamation addressed to the "Toilers of New-York City. The proclamation is a representative document of its kind, and shows that the Socialists have an idea that the sole aim of capitalists and trusts is to annihilate workingmen. This document, which is calculated to frighten ignorant workmen, especially of foreign birth, is in part as follows:

The plutocracy everywhere is concentrating its forces and strengthening its positions with a view to the inevitable conflict between despotism and freedom. Every day new trusts, new syndicates, new combinations appear, which dwarf in magnitude those of the previous day. Local at first, or limited to special industries, they soon become National, then international, and boundless in their become National, then international, and boundless in their field of activity. Their chief object is the final, complete, absolute subjugation of labor all over the world.

Among other preposterous assertions interesting as showing the method of reasoning by which leaders of mobs excite their followers to violence against estab-lished laws and society, are the following:
